

Richard Walton Shelter Kitchen Facilities

Both the North and the South large shelters at Richard Walton Park has its own kitchen. Renters are offered the optional convenience of renting a kitchen along with the shelter.

Countertop space and a window to the shelter offer ease of serving your guests.

A small refrigerator and four-burner stove are available for food preparation.

Hot and cold running water are available in the stainless steel, double sink for easy clean-up.